

LEARN SAXOPHONE

A HEADSTART SUMMER BEGINNER CLASS

An exciting beginner class for students who will be entering 6th grade next fall. Classes meet Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday 4:00-4:45. There are 2 sessions to choose from (see below for dates and tuition). Full payment must be made prior to beginning. It is ok to miss an occasional class, but no make-ups will be offered. If you plan to miss an entire week, please contact me for a prorated fee. Class size is limited, so sign up soon!

Where: Christ United Methodist Church (S.W. corner of Parker and Coit). We will meet in rehearsal room C, in the music wing of the new sanctuary.

Times: June session: May 29 - June 19, MTWTh 4:00-4:45 pm, 13 classes $210, concert on June 20 at 4 pm.

July session: July 22 - August 1, MTWTh 1:00-1:45 pm, 8 classes $150

Supplies: Students need to have equipment by the first meeting. I recommend the following: Yamaha YAS23, YAS26, or Yamaha 200AD alto sax, Selmer C* mouthpiece or Vandoren Optimum AL3 mouthpiece, Selmer 434A inverted ligature, Vandoren #2 1/2 reeds to start, and a folding music stand.

To sign up, simply register online. If you have any other questions, please feel free to contact me by email at mark@markalewine.com.

Instructor: Mark Alewine, whose credentials include Bachelor of Music Education, Masters of Music, Texas All-Level Teaching Certificate, private instructor for Plano ISD, Richardson ISD, and the Hockaday School, and an active performer and clinician.
